Nuannoradit Marching Band

The Background of Marching Band Wat Nuannoradit School.

Nuannoradit Marching Band was established in 1984, beginning with Brass Band. Later on, it was developed to Marching Band that offered the family-based training style. Currently, it has been run as a marching band that has the training with international standard. We have joined a number of competitions organized by government and private organization. Mr.Eakkasit Arunthanapakorn is a band director.

Program: Beauty and the Beast

It is the story of "Belle," a young woman with a beautiful face and heart who has to pay the penalty for her father. Belle had to live with a horrible-looking beast. But as she got to know more about this beast Belle learned that "We should not judge others only from the outside"
